I had a dream, Oh, yeah, Crazy dream, uh-huh.

Anything I wanted to know, Any place I needed to go

Hear my song

Yeah...People don't you listen now? Sing along!

Oh, You don't know what you're missing now.

Any little song that you know

Everything that's small has to grow.

And it has to grow!, Push push, yeah!

California sunlight, sweet Calcutta rain

Honolulu starbright--the song remains the same. ooh!
ooh!

Here we go!, Honolulu now...

Sing out Hare Hare, dance the Hoochie Koo.

City lights are oh so bright, as we go sliding sliding, sliding through., Oh
