Sometimes when you really believe that you're strong
You've got your head up high
Although the sun don't shine
Thinking nothing could go wrong

When everything is easy, and everything is all right
You forget about those who struggle
And fight through the days of their lives

Then I saw you
You were dancing in the moonlight
Singing a familiar tune
I don't believe in a world that we could live
In perfect harmony
I don't believe that a higher power choose
What is our destiny

Sometimes we have to walk through the pouring rain
We got to pick up the pieces and put in back together
And make us whole again
You know we've been down that road before
But still we keep coming back for more
I believe our love was meant to last forever

Then I saw you
You were dancing in the moonlight
Singing a familiar tune
I don't believe in a world that we could live
In perfect harmony
I don't believe that a higher power choose
What is our destiny

Cause I believe in you
And you believe in me
And that's all we need

I only want to be with you
As long as you are by my side I'll make it through
I don't want to live a life without you
And I need you to be true

World we could live

In perfect harmony
I don't believe that a higher power choose
What is our destiny

'Cause I believe in you
And you believe in me
And all I need is to make memories with you.
