Like a record of history
With a full discography
Like a pilot I take a view
One hundred miles on top of you
And out here I wonder how
What it is I'm seeing now
That from all the things I do
I'm gonna end up just like you

I'm in the breech so hear me now
A one-shot deal that's not allowed
If I can ever escape from you
I never wanted to be like you
A fear of failure or success
That I might be second best
That history repeats itself
No way to ever forgive myself

Breech loader
Breech loader
Breech loader

A single history of wreckage
A single point of impact

Another round of spreading fear
In tattooed nights we roamed the streets
Shouting we drove endlessly
A thousand times we met and reduced discomfort
And the mighty fall as mighty do

Only you were just December crammed into a year
And I was just a year in ten
A single history of wreckage
A single point of impact
My fragments scattering widely
My shrapnel shattering the innocent

Don't want to be
Don't want to be
Just like you

Gonna be, just like you
Breech loader
Unloaded I'm nothing
Loaded I explode
Smash my surroundings
Into a million pieces
I have welts on my hands
From killing windows

I step into the breech
It's my job occupation
My only salvation
The only way to understand my situation
Gun for hire
I'm the breech loader
Mercenary
