The reprisals were harsh
Cause we're the ones who dealt them
What others didn't know
We would teach them
For zero killed
Zero kills
We're zero kills

We rode on through
Like a T34
Nothing could stop us
Our dead-eyed crew
Our years were burning
Through a thousand thrills
We're zero kills, zero kills

Someone was talking
I wasn't looking
The noise and the cheers drew me away
Too busy looking at my feet
I missed the main event
And found myself left behind

It's just like this
It's just like this
It's just like this
We're zero kills

With the others scattered
And me left on my own
The same old story unfolded
With me alone
Only need one left to remember
What others disown
Only one to record
Before it's all gone

If you can pinpoint where it all went wrong
If you could recover the lost unsung songs
What would you do?
Would you seek to empower another with the knowledge

Of that last fatal hour?

We're zero kills
We're zero kills
We're zero kills
We're zero kills
We're zero kills
We're zero kills
We're zero kills

We've only just met
You still have to go through hell yet
Don't look at me too long
Or you might just see yourself

Like a hair trigger
Waiting to go off
This time
We're gonna do it right

As often dictates
When we weave a course
That's slightly off balance
And somewhat off course

And in our wake
Who says the closest distance between two points
Has to be a straight line?

We're zero kills
We're zero kills
We're zero kills
And so it goes
