Cause and effect
Don't seem to have an effect on you
And everything you do

Seemed like a test
Like I don't know if I made it through
And what it comes down to

You would pull the plug
You wouldn't stop
'til you're the last one breathing

Until you couldn't talk
There's no one there to listen
No heart beating
Is there anything you still believe in?

If we did it all again
No I don't think we'd still be friends
Probably wouldn't have made it at all
But that wouldn't be my fault

You drift like you're dancing'
Didn't I have a chance in the world
You've got me runnin' in circles

Playin by the rules that you made so you'd never lose and think it's all so amusing

As you pull the plug
You don't stop
'til you're the last one breathing

Until you couldn't talk
There's no one there to listen
No heart beating
But the one thing I can still believe in

If we did it all again
No I don't think we'd still be friends

Probably wouldn't have made it at all
But that wouldn't be my fault

Don't come any closer
I'm on a holiday
Don't want to find you waiting 'round the bend
Say it's OK
Say it till we're young and gray
Say it feels so good, until it ends

If we did it all again
If we did it all again
No I don't think we'd still be friends
Probably wouldn't have made it at all
But that wouldn't be my fault
