You can start me up whenever I please
You can be my electronic heartbeat
Only you can satisfy my sex need
Love in front, I'll promise you the backseat

See me as the one who told you once to be my friend and nothing more

I saw you dance your night away
Electronic Heartbeat
And stumbling in the light of day
Electronic Heartbeat
It just feels like I've moving on
When light turns on, you stand alone
Electronic Heartbeat

Roll me round in soakin wet white sheats
Time with you is lovely but I ain't pleased Lift me up when I am on my bruised knees
Warm me up before I travel far seas

You know where to find me again
Just can't be stuck to your chains
This is not it, you'll be okay, and so will I, 'til we meet again
