Everyday was a needle trough my heart
Really should have known it right from the start
You tried to come along with me
But it wasnt that easy
Shook it off and got a brilliant idea

Hey watch me, I'm leaving
This is my final call
Keep walk straight
Down the line

Get outta my life, outta my life
Know im better off without you
Outta my life, outta my head
I remember what she said

New lies this time i will think twice
This is my game watch me roll the dice
Let you know you did it all in vein
Yeah it was that easy
Cuz im a heart breaker with my head in the sky

Hey watch me, I'm leaving
This is my final call
Keep walk straight
Down the line

Get outta my life, outta my life
Know im better off without you
Outta my life, outta my head
I remember what she said
It's like an echo in my head
I remember what she said

Baby is no more
When my morning comes
