"Devotion"

My devotional ties are keeping me around
For it's safer at night to stay around the house
And if the weather's turning grey, and if the mornings
are cold
I'll just sit and I'll pray, I'll open the doors

When the pressure's on
That's when I lose myself
But I'm still holding on
To much better days

My devotional ties are making me feel
So restless tonight, I lose my sinner guilt
And if the weather's turning grey, and if the mornings
are cold
I just sit and I pray, I open up the door

When the pressure's on
That's when I lose myself
But I'm still holding on
To much better days

Oooo, ooo, ooo...

When the pressure's on
That's when I lose myself
But I'm still holding on
To much better days
[repeat]
