Song by Mandalay

You couldn't even bring yourselves to stay around
You had to go spoil it all
And now you had to go

Now I find these endless nights
And all the blightful days to think
You never will

*Take this life, take it all
In your hands
If you were mine I could smile*
Again, stay, fine

Again I dream you come to me and comfort me
And now I dream
Where did the smile go
Where did the smile go
Didn't bother go oh

And then
You had to go and spoil it all
And now I've learned
You never will
[Repeat*]
Here, come, stay, fine
[Repeat*]
Again

Just what you said was cool advice
I discovered sticks could be knives
I discovered I could die in your chains
Still I feel so won't you stay

[Repeat*]
Here, come, stay, fine
[Repeat*]
Again
