You were tuned out all along
Didn't catch a word, you blink and nod
Say yeah, but you just stare
No you don't care
No you aren't there
You're breaking up
I'm going to hang up

Hear me out - That's all I want

I've got a vision, just listen up
Not binary fission, just a simple plot
Don't shut me out or interrupt
There you go again
You're nodding off
What's your difficulty
A problem with hearing me

Hear me out - That's all I want
You're breaking up
I'm going to hang up

Now I've got something for us
A simple plot, and it's glorious
So hear me out, before you interject
Or brush me off like an insect
There you go again
You know I'm not afraid

Hear me out - That's all I want
You're breaking up
I'm going to hang up
