Take my last breath, something you want
A final charm, something you want
Take my last word, something you need
A final spell, something you need

And you take (take) everything I love
And you take (take) everything I love
And you take (take) everything I love
And you take everything I love

Take my bad heart, anything you wish
A certain lure, anything you wish
Take my bad soul, anything you crave
A certain curse

And you take (take) everything I love
And you take (take) everything I love
And you take (take) everything I love
And you take everything I love

Take me away, whatever you ask
I've got nothing, whatever you ask
Take me away, whatever you do
I've got nothing

And you take (take) everything I love
And you take (take) everything I love
And you take (take) everything I love
And you take everything I love

This is the life I suppose
