Aw fuck it, kill me again.
This shit will make me a better man,
and I'll take what life can give.
Death, love lost, and fights I couldn't win. Kill me again.

I know I've made mistakes and let down everyone.
But I guess that's the cost of a life of fun.
It's funny how time it hasn't got me yet,
so I'll just keep on making those losing bets.
They said it wasn't good enough, my best or not. This shit won't stop this life can't last forever.

It's funny how time it hasn't got me yet,
so I'll just keep on making those losing bets. Kill Me Again.

Today's the day you rain on my parade. Today's the day.
