I'm not scared and I'm not careful
I dove right in
Yes, I dove below your skin

I'm resilient, I bounce off of the words
I fear
They're the words you force me to hear

I'm not angry, I'm not sad about
The girl you are
You're the girl who dug this far

You go drift and you go drifting
Across the floor
I will stay 'til there's no more

Come back roses and leave the foul poses
Just come back roses and leave the foul poses

I'm not old and I'm not crazy
I lift you off
Yes I lift you off the ground

I'm so sorry you're not happy
I thought you were
I would do it all for her

We're not feeling the same way
That we have before
I'll apologize some more

I'm so thankful, I adore
Everything you did
In my head is where you live

Come back roses and leave the foul poses
Just come back roses and leave the foul poses
