We used to share coffee each morning
You used to kiss me goodnight
We loved like there was no tomorrow
But that was a place back in time

These days just feel cold and lonely
A feeling that's breaking my heart
You'd think we could pull it together
We're too close but so far apart

Come back to the love that we both know so well
Let's cut our loses right now
We're wasting the love we're not making, sweetheart
We're too close but so far apart

Oh, come back to the love that we both know so well
Let's cut our loses right now
We're wasting the love we're not making, sweetheart
We're too close but so far apart

We're wasting the love we're not making, sweetheart
We're too close to be so far apart
