I talked to God and god said "Hey!
I've got a lot of things to say write it down this very day and spread the word in every way."
I talked to God and here's the deal:
He said to floss between each meal Drive with both hands on the wheel and on the first date don't cop a feel Chorus
I talked to God and God said...nothing special
I talked to God and God said...nothing special I talked to God and God said nothing that we shouldn't already know shouldn't already know
And talked to God and here's what he said:
"wear a helmet on your head when you ride a bike instead or you'll crash and end up dead."
I asked God for the Holy Word ageless wisdom never heard He just said to feed the birds love your pets, clean up their turds
Chorus
I talked to God and God said "John,
I let them kill my only son and my creation's so undone that I can't help out everyone But if you're looking for advice you don't need to ask me twice start with the basics: just be nice and see if that makes things all right."
