Is the person in the mirror happy with what she's not?
I can't decide if you get on my nerves or not
Thanks for coming you're so ...well
Seems like everyday's your bloody hell

Every kind of way they're eccentric to please
Every scandal says they're dogmatical wheeze

We are free baby,
It is that easy,
It's you and me on the run,
Second to none

Are you happy if your bed becomes your base?
With a secret smile of childish look of delight on your face
Critical Enthusiast
Sympathetical gone past

Every kind of way they're eccentric to please
Every scandal says they're dogmatical wheeze

We are free baby,
It is that easy,
It's you and me on the run,
Second to none

It's you and me on the run,
Second to none

It's you and me on the run
You and on the run
You and me the run

Ah, Every kind of way they're eccentric to please
Ah, Every scandal says they're dogmatical wheeze
(repeat to fade)
