The subtle movements of her eyes said it all
Made my thoughts wonder of, couldn't get enough
The perfume of this girl, in front of me, is killin' me

This soultrip rolls along this road
Straight into the unknown is where I wanna go
I'm losing my head, losing my head over her

Spinning 'round and 'round so fast
When she touches me and I see her smile
She makes it all worthwhile
Spinning 'round and 'round so fast I believe she
Makes me whole, I never felt this much alive

So divine, she's pure, she's beautiful
And on days like this in the autumn winds

I feel that all I am is about her, about her

Spinning 'round and 'round so fast
When she touches me and I see her smile
She makes it all worthwhile
Spinning 'round and 'round so fast I believe she
Makes me whole, I never felt this much alive
She makes it all worthwhile... (4x)

Spinning 'round and 'round so fast
When she touches me and I see her smile
She makes it all worthwhile
Spinning 'round and 'round so fast I believe she
Makes me whole, I never felt this much alive
Much alive
She makes me feel alive
