Waking up to rain drops falling on the window pain
The love we shared was all that mattered and I hoped it never change
But it's so different ever since you've been gone
It all seems bare now & I feel so alone

Please let it rain let the water pour
Thunder and lightning
A never ending storm
Cuz I'm down on my knees and I'm begging you please you're what life was all about
Please let it rain oh and end this lonesome drought

I use to sit and watch you walking thru sunflowers in our field
We laugh and love and often wondered Was this too good to be real
Our land is dry now & my heart's not all that hurts
This home is a desert with a desperate aching thirst

Please let it rain let the water pour
Thunder and lightning
A never ending storm
Cuz I'm down on my knees and I'm begging you please
you're what life was all about

Please let it rain let the water pour
Thunder and lightning
A never ending storm
Cuz I'm down on my knees and I'm begging you please
you're what life was all about
Please let it rain oh and end this lonesome drought
Please let it rain and end this lonesome drought
