Let me start off by sayin
I ain't knockin anyone
I guess somebody's gotta sing those slick pop country songs

But there's something missin
Been missin for a while
It's more my style
And it'll make them country girls go wild

Let's put the rednecks in the Ryman
Don't you think it's about time
We stand up for a little Jambalyin'
Show 'em that the country boy is still survivin
Can't get rid of the outlaw
We still party all night long
Can't you feel the revolution rising
Let's put the rednecks in the Ryman

There's something happenin
All across the land
We ain't been feedin
Those Hank Jr and Skynryd fans

If you feel what I'm sayin'
Then raise up your glass
And we'll make the good times last
And we'll kick some downhome backwoods ass

REPEAT CHORUS X2
