It's a beautiful tragedy

But,

Let me tell you something that you might not know
That this great big world is one big show
We are all just actors in this great big scene
There are ups and downs, and in-betweens
And your enemies all become your friends
And your friends are there 'til the end
And no matter what, and no matter how
The curtain comes down to drown you out
If the hero falls, who will rescue me
It's up to you to save the queen
If the hero falls, who will rescue me
It's up to you to save the queen

It's up to you to save the queen

It's a beautiful tragedy
Beautiful, beautiful

Let me tell you something that you might not know
That this great big world is one big show
We are all just actors in this great big scene
There are ups and downs, and in-betweens
And your enemies all become your friends
And your friends are there until the end
And no matter what, and no matter how
The curtain comes down to drown you out
If the hero falls, who will rescue me
It's up to you to save the queen
If the hero falls, who will rescue me
It's up to you to save the queen

It's up to you to save the queen

It's a beautiful tragedy
Beautiful, beautiful

Tragedy

Beautiful... Tragedy(x5)
