A sad december day
The bullets fell like rain
As i was standing there
With tears of fire
A city on display
There's no way we can count
The cost of what we lost
But we're still here breathing

Forgive me if i scream
It's just a long, long way to fall
And through it all
We are still here breathing

God take away this pain
A broken heart is hard
To mend, even when
You've taken over
Please take me as i am
I'm just a broken man who's seen
The worst of scenes
And i'm still here breathing

Forgive me if i scream
It's just a long, long way to fall
And through it all
We are still here breathing
Forgive me if i scream
But with your help i'm standing tall
And through it all
We are still here breathing

We will miss you
We still love you

Still here breathing

Forgive me if i scream
It's just a long, long way to fall
And through it all
We are still here breathing

Forgive me if i scream
But with your help i'm standing tall
And through it all
I am still here breathing
Forgive me forgive me
Cuz i'm still here breathing
