Superstitious minds will follow their destruction feeding lies so hard to swallow are they choking you?
rank and file
like a soldier
fell to pieces
we never saw it coming

when the dark cloud breaks
the sky will part, the earth will tremble as the oceans boil a king returns to claim his kingdom

We are children in a struggle for redemption We the last line in this battle Here comes judgement day
rank and file

as the oceans boil a king returns to claim his kingdom

If you stand for nothing Than you'll fall for everything Don't throw up the white flag surrender is death

as hope is restored a nation rises from the ashes and every knee will bow and every tongue confess He is Lord
He is Lord
