When everyone is making me so slow.
When everyone tends to see
only things that I do wrong.
I guess it's up to you and me.

I get lost without your love,
I get lost within your love.
Feels a bit like making up,
even more like making love.
When it's down to push and shove,
when it comes to giving up.
I get lost within your love,
I get lost without your love.

I know I'm really satisfied, with love.
It's a late night taxi ride.
All these street lights come and go.
When I should be walking home.

I get lost without your love,
I get lost within your love.
Feels a bit like making up,
even more like making love.
When it's down to push and shove,
when it comes to giving up.
I get lost within your love,
I get lost without your love.

These pills are making me feel ill.
I want something that I know is real.
Just open up your heart.
Open up your heart.
Turn it over or give up.
Turn it over or give up.

I get lost without your love,
I get lost within your love.
Feels a bit like making up,
even more like making love.
When it's down to push and shove,
when it comes to giving up.

I get lost without your love,
I get lost within your love.
