I thought I could taste it
It was only a dream
It turns out I replaced it
With more of me
You waited for my answer
I gave my reply
That I put in the ceiling
You opened the sky

I'm on the upside of down (x2)

Letting all the motions and changing the lines
It's more than I signed up for and gave no life
Now I really tasted and I hear the sound
Of falling even faster upside of down

I'm on the upside of down (x4)

Hey, where did we begin this?
Where did we begin this?
I don't wanna get down, down, down

Hey, where did we begin this?
Where did we begin this?
I don't wanna get down, down, down
Down, down, down

I'm on the upside of down (x4)
