Reach on high,for the sky
Your wish's will be reality
The sun win't rise,if you don't belive
So hold on tight to your dreams

Ohhh please don't go,i'll be missing you
And if you leave it won't be the same

Don't you cry daddy will be home
If he doesn't come back you won't be alone
Mother will be there if you're still afraid
Form the demons in your head that won't break away

Ohhh i'm so scared to much thing have changed
Why is everyone acting so strange

(Solo)
(He won't be back)
Throw it all away as far as you can
I know i know i know it hurt's
How does it feel when the pain won't go away
When you break your fist when the bruise won't heal
