Wake up
Can't you see he's lying
His tongue is filled with lies
But don't worry i will cut it out
And shove it back in his face

We throw our dreams away and now we live in fear
We left it all behind But please don't fade in tears

Get up can't you see he's faking
His heart is filled with hatred
But don't worry i will rip it out
And smash it on the ground

We throw our dreams away and now we live in fears
We left it all behind but don't fade in tears
Just stand for what you believe
And together we'll rise upon this now
(breakdown)
YOUR LIES WON'T BREAK US ALL
