It's been so long
Since I have heard your voice.
I'd like to talk
But I might not have the choice.

You turned off your phone.
I guess you need some time away.
I wish you could hear me say

I know that some time
When the weather is fine
I will be with you
I'll be with you

No one can see
What the future will be
But I'll feel for you
I'll feel for you

I saw your friends
They said that this was not like you.
One thing I have learnt
Even angels lose their view.

And now you have gone
My days are empty, cold and bleak.
To think that we can't even speak.
Can't even speak.

I know that some time
When the weather is fine
I will be with you
I'll be with you

No one can see
What the future will be
But I'll feel for you
I'll feel for you

I'm just trying to make a contribution
Does that stand for nothing at all.

I want to say that I love you
But I feel like I can't talk.

And I know that some time
When the weather is fine
I will be with you
Be with you
No one can see
What the future will be
But I'll feel for you
I'll feel for you.
