The west was getting out of gold
The breath of air had died of cold

Was only adding frost to snow
As guilt to gold that wouldn't show

Snow queen dancing in your hair
Going down the winter stairs

And we all living in the winter side
But now we miss the summer light

Now we all living in the winter side
Sometimes we miss the summer night

Every moment of the night
Snowflakes shining into the starlight

In the morning they arise
But only one can seek the sky

Snow queen dancing in your hair
Going down the winter stairs

And we all living in the winter side
But now we miss the summer light

Snow queen dancing in your hair
Going down the winter stairs

And we all living in the winter side
But now we miss the summer light

Now we all living in the winter side
Sometimes we miss the summer night...
