Say what you want about me and about the way I live
my life
You call yourself a friend
And yet you turn your back on me
Your words mean absolutely nothing
This is the calling in my life

It's not about the fortune and fame
It's not the American dream
This is so much more
More than you and me
We don't need your condemning

Say what you want about me and the way I live my life
This time it's coming back on you
I am holding true to my calling
This is it
We're never giving up

We're never giving up

And you had the nerve to go and call yourself my brother
No, we're never giving up

Your fate is yours and my fate is mine
So keep your mouth shut
Can't hold us down, can't keep us quiet
There's people starving and searching for the truth
We come together and stand united We're going to make it with or without you

You just can't understand what this is all about
Unless you see the world through my eyes
Fall back in line
You're all the same, you're wasting my time
I'm in a spiritual state of mind
So get yours cause I'ma get mine
Step off

I'm holding true to my calling

This is it
I'm holding true to my convictions

I'm holding true to my calling
It's all I am
I'm holding true to my convictions

Say what you want about me and about the way I live
my life
You call yourself a friend
And yet you turn your back on me
Your words mean absolutely nothing
This is the calling in my life
We're never giving up
No, we're never giving up
No, we're never giving up
No, we're never giving up
