And once again, we were,
so surprisingly....
destructing actions,
in your hands meaning in my head blew away from me like i just awoke from a...

What went wrong, with us i loved you like, a brother cant move on, without you here hope you know, what i mean

The Things i did made you screaming mad
No intentions and for that i feel so sad

Cant we make things right stop the fight from now on

Do you remember, all those days
When We loved to live
And "I don't give a fucking care" of all the fucked up things we did Memories will Never Fade.

The Things i did made you screaming mad
No intentions and for that i feel so sad

The Things i did made you screaming mad
(im breaking down i wilter)

(this will leave a mark)
Goddamnit
