Thousand Hours
"Not The Only One"

(verse 1)
don't ruin your life before it even starts don' make the wrong decissions or you'll end up in the dark to many kids are homeless to many of them die to many of them pulled to drugs to many of them cry

(pre chorus)
you

(chorus)
run away to the place that you call home you've got nothing to be on your own
you've go to realize that you're not the only one

(verse 2)
you think you're escaping unremaind reality but you're just endangering your life you need to step up and face the demon thats inside thats telling you to run away to the place that makes you feel like everything is okay

(pre chorus)
you

(chorus)
you've got nothing to be on your own
you've got to realize that you're not the only one

(bridge)

(verse 3)
people talk about the planes that crased the people didn't know that they were next it was caused by the ones who wanted a blast and seen by the ones who thought it would always last take a look around the world and the oppritunities it will offer why do many people do this?

what is wrong with this place?

(pre chorus)
you

(chorus)
you've got nothing to be on your own
you've got to realize that you're not the only one
