A girl went passed us,
Trying to staring me down (from my head to foot)
Yeah (up and down she look)
And when I look at you,
You were staring at the ground (you staring nothing)
Ohhh (down on the ground, boy)
I don't know who she is, but I think that you do
Daggomit now, who is she (who is she, who is she)
Hey, and what is she to you?

Something in my heart
as seen in your eyes
Don't you know, boy, that it keeps telling me
It's not someone bot just passing by
Ohhh, and when did you clear your throat,
(clears throat)
Was that your cue? (you blew)
Daggomit, hey-hey, who is she? (who is she)
I wanna know, and what is she to you?

When I add the sum (one)
Of you and me (two)
Don't you know, boy, I get confused
And I keep coming up with three (you and me... and she)
You're too much for one woman
But you're not in love for two
Daggomit, boy, who is she (who is she, who is she)
And what is she to you?

Ohhhhh, you told me you don't believe
In a woman's intuition laughs)
Hey boy, is that what you're thinking?
Or are you wishing?
Let me tell you something right now, ha!
Before you wreck your own home,
You better be searching up anew
Daggomit, boy, who is she (who is she, who is she)
Hey! (and what is she to you)
I wanna, I wanna know right now, baby
(Who is she, who is she, who is she)

Tell me, yeah (and what is she to you)
What is she, what is she to you, baby--
(who is she, who is she, who is she)
Whoo! Hey! (and what is she to you)
What is she, what, what is she to you, baby
Who is she? I wanna know right now
(and what is she to you)
Come on, tell me right now, baby--
(Who is she?) Whoo! (Who.. is.. she?)
Who is she? (and what is she to you)
I wanna know what is she to you, baby
(who is she) Who is she? Uh-huh
(And what is she to you)
What is she, what is she to you....
