

Thrills, The "Midnight Choir"

Slow down lately lives are moving too fast
Put your money down and we'll make it last
By dawn we'll be out of here.
The marching band play for the families through the streets, beautiful symphonies.
Let's walk through the park while the trees are still there.

And the midnight choir they sing
They sing a hymn
We used to believe ??
Aaaaahhhh
But it's all we've got

I've found a job and I'm gonna hold this one down.
I was a burden to everyone when I was young and far from home
But now you're home cos you cant run forever
The old parade stumble together
The drinks last all on them

And the midnight choir they sing
They sing a hymn
We used to believe in ??
But its all we've got.

I don't know what I'd do
I don't know what I'd do
You're all I've ever known.
But if something should come between us
Oh if something should come between us

And the midnight choir they sing
They sing a hymn we used to believe in
But it's all we've got.
