Oh nothing changes round here, oh nothing changes round here

Oh no

Oh but I see you now on the outskirts of town

But the fog gets so heavy

La la la la la

But if you're looking for comforting words, so long

Just don't tell me that you loved me all along

But if you're looking for famous last words, so long

I saw your sister last night and we danced danced danced

That was all

But I see you now on the outskirts of town

But the fog gets so heavy

La la la la la

Just don't tell me that you loved me all along

And your face so full of gloom so I booked ourselves a room

Took what every teenage boy in town wanted

And you chose me

And then you disappeared from our lives

Sacred things were on your horizon

I demanded an explanation

You said that I was not your father

And you owed me none

Oh nothing changes round here

Oh nothing changes round here

Anymore

Anymore

Anymore

La la la la la

But if you're looking for comforting words, so long
Just don't tell me that you loved me, all along
But if you're looking for famous last words so long
Just don't tell me that you loved me all along

Don't just don't tell me that you loved me all along
