

Thrills, The "Should've Known Better"

Visit "Should've Known Better" on MotoLyrics.com

A harbour dance, I didn't live my youth with sufficient recklessness

Yeah I envy your youth, yes I envy your youth,

I envy your youth, yes I envy your youth.

But looking at you now girl

I know we'll never be haunted by such doubts.

Yes it's clear as the day yes it's clear as the day

It's clear as the day, yes it's clear as the day

I once had big dreams like you girl

I once had big dreams like you girl

I once had big dreams like you girl

But they're hard to sustain in this world

Oh we could have hit class, the kind people can't see past

Yeah I should have known better, yes I should have known better

Oh its too painful to look at you.

The memories you bring to the front of my mind

The regrets you bring to the front of my mind

I once had big dreams like you girl

I once had big dreams like you girl

I once had big dreams like you girl

But they're hard to sustain in this world

A harbour dance I didn't live my youth with sufficient
recklessness

I envy your youth, yes I envy your youth,

I envy your youth, yes I envy your youth

Ahhhhh aaaa-aaa-aaaahhh
