"The New Horizon"

Visit "The New Horizon" on MotoLyrics.com

You're praying you're praying of what your life are saying but when do you realize it's fake You're greeding you're greeding if there is no one leading well all your sad fucks get a life

I know there's more paths then heaven
The new horizon
Drop all your lies get a life
The new horizon
X2

You're dreaming of heaven and how it can be found but all you mortals are naive
The faith that you're wearing it all fits together but when the ending comes it's gone

I know there's more paths then heaven
The new horizon
Drop all your lies get a life
The new horizon

Lifes are taken by knives just by a stab they don't rely on heaven chance to make a move just by a stab in the back of my fucking back
