Even when the sun isn't shining on me
And the pain makes it hard to believe
That you came with a love and a heartbeat to set us free

Even when it's so hard to just face the day
And my regrets try to get in the way
Even when my mind says "give up"
I'll remember you give me strength to say

Let the rain fall on me and wash away everything
I think I need, I'll still believe
There's hope beyond yesterday, I'm not gonna run
away
I'll count on you to be my strength again, even when

Even when the deadlines all knock at my door
And the bills are spread out on the floor
I'll remember how you pulled me through
So many times before

Let the rain fall on me and wash away everything
I think I need, I'll still believe
There's hope beyond yesterday, I'm not gonna run
I'll count on you to be my strength again, even when

You never said it'd be easy
I'm gonna stay on the narrow road
Even when it takes my all to keep standing
I'll keep my eyes on you

So let the rain fall on me and wash away everything
I think I need, I'll still believe
There's hope beyond yesterday, I'm not gonna run
I'll count on you to be my strength again, even when [x2]

Let the rain, let the rain fall on me
Wash away, wash away everything
I'll still believe

Better than, better than my yesterday
No I'm not gonna run away
I'll still believe
