You were there for me when I needed you the most I lied for you when we needed it the most You gave me fever every time I abused you like the cross
You made me sweat you made me sweat

Jenny I'm chasing the dragon
Jenny leave me now for good
Jenny this depression is something great to me
Jenny this life I lead will soon kill me

You got me addicted to this sharp tipped relationship
All the problems with all the fighting So fuck off and get out of my body out of my brain and out of my veins
Now I feel alone I feel depressed I feel like shit I feel dead

Jenny I'm chasing the dragon
Jenny leave me now for good
Jenny this depression is something great to me
Jenny this life I lead will soon kill me

Jenny you've left your scars you've left your marks
you've left your pain

There's no life worth living now Goodbye and so long
My razor says goodbye
