Sanity is for the boring
Hits your tummy, it starts roaring
What's the plan now that you've stopped adoring me
You bloody fool

Lying, cheatin', someone'll notice
You're a great fuck but what about us
Lying here you can't expect me to ignore
You're crushing my heart on the floor

Step on it, step on it, have a piece my love
Spit it out, spit it out, rip it up my love
Step on it, step on it, have a piece my love
Spit it out, spit it out, rip it up my love

Step on it, step on it, have a piece my love
Spit it out, spit it out, rip it up my love
Step on it, step on it, have a piece my love
Spit it out, spit it out

God I'm just a phonecall away
Don't blame it all on yesterday
It's not like I could've stopped you in time
Just hold that thought

God I'm just a phonecall away
Don't blame it on what happened yesterday
Press the fucking button if you want to be mine

Escape at night it's dark and clouded
Just go ahead, don't walk around it
Close my eyes and tell me what I should see
You're killing me

Breakfast served at half past seven
Checkout time around eleven
Don't wait for me, don't need no goodbye from you
I love you too

God I'm just a phonecall away
Don't blame it all on yesterday

It's not like I could've stopped you in time
Just hold that thought

God I'm just a phonecall away
Don't blame it on what happened yesterday
Press the fucking button if you want to be mine

Step on it, step on it, have a piece my love
Spit it out, spit it out, rip it up my love

Step on it, step on it, have a piece my love
Spit it out, spit it out, rip it up my love
Step on it, step on it, have a piece my love
Spit it out, spit it out

God I'm just a phonecall away
Don't blame it all on yesterday
It's not like I could've stopped you in time
Just hold that thought

God I'm just a phonecall away
Don't blame it on what happened yesterday
Press the fucking button if you want to be mine

God I'm just a phonecall away
(...a phonecall away)
It's not like I could've stopped you in time
(...stopped you in time)
God I'm just a phonecall away

Press the fucking button if you want to be mine
