I would ask you again, but till tommorow I stand So go tell all of your friends, That I'm not gonna be here
I'm just about at my lane, They must think I am insane Cause I passed it again, And I'm not goin back

(Chorus)

When your always in the wrong way
And never ever could you ever fix this up
You might believe this is the right way
She wasn't everything in the world
I could do so much better then that
To think I had everything I wanted and so much more I didn't know

When I left it was gone, Nothing else could be mine
Then it wasn't so fine, When your the left there to cry
So I went back again, There was was nothing left but a pen
So I wrote this song to You friend, but I'm afraid it might be too late

Chorus

Oh, She wasn't everything in the world
I could do so much better then that
didn't know
So much more that I didn't know
