What you want to do tonight?
I got wounds to lick in life
Oh you've said
Standing like a stick
This tie could invert to be a noose instead

Oh you lie next to me
Heart is beating heavily
There's blood in your ear though
Blood on your shirt
It's too late to say you're sorry
Say you're sorry still
I stepped out with heavy heart
To bail you out again
Oh those things you do
Oh those things you do

Get out! And get gone
This town is only gonna get worse
Get out! And get gone
This town is only gonna eat you

Oh so many bills to pay
No this debt won't go away
Oh so sad
What you know you're drunk again
Take it out on your best friend
Oh so sad

Oh you lie next to me
Heart is beating heavily
There's blood in your ear though
Blood on your shirt
It's too late to say you're sorry
Say you're sorry still
I stepped out with heavy heart
To bail you out again
Oh those things you do
Oh those things you do

Get out! And get gone

This town is only gonna get worse
Get out! And get gone
This town is only gonna eat you
[x2]

Oh you lie next to me
Heart is beating heavily
There's blood in your hair though
Blood on your shirt
It's too late to say you're sorry
Say you're sorry still
I stepped out with heavy heart
To bail you out again

Get out! And get gone
This town is only gonna get worse
