Thunderous raging clouds move fast with the wind it calls to me, it calls like a voice of past showing me my pain
But I lived on, I lived on

CHORUS
floating with the leaves falling at your feet I called to you, I called and like the rising sun in amber flames of red I felt your soul and fled but all my fears are gone now my hands are yours to hold and I'll stand here alone until we meet once more.

Dark horns cry in pain until we meet again

move fast with with wind it calls to me, it calls, it calls..
