You were unfaithful, I was so blind
I was yours, I thought you were mine
You're not what I thought you were, I gave you everything:
My life, my dreams, my heart

You're not what I thought you, I gave you everything:
My life, my dreams, my heart, my soul

I have dreams, so much
For the life we would have together
But now everything's just falling apart
I hate to say it, but the truth is that
I love you so, I will leave you but you must know
That I love you more, I love you

I can't believe (He can't believe)
That you are gone (That she's gone)
I can't believe I stand here alone (Here alone)
I can't believe that you are gone

You had my love, my heart, my soul
I can't live

I've dreams, so much
For the life we would have together.
But now everything's just falling apart
I hate to say it, but the truth is that

I've dreams, so much
For the life we would have together
But now everything's just falling apart
I hate to say it, but the truth is that

I love you so, I will leave you, but you must know
That I love you more, I love you
