I'm so angry with you, sorry.
You should concentrate on cheering me up.
But it's too late now, you've lost your chance, it's gone.
You never once realized how bad our dilemma had got.
Stop it, honey, cheeky!
Why can't you see it my way just this time?
Silence, naughty, fussy!
I am really sick of you.
And I hate you.

That's right you love me so much, don't you.
I should thank you for that, maybe.
But it's no use how what a giant waste of time.
Because i have never felt any weight in your words to me.
Shut up!!
Stop it, honey, snooty!
Why don't we just look at our bullshit then?
Iffy, crappy, scrappy!
You would be best off alone.
I am really sick of you.
And I hate you.
