I thought you should know that I can't take this life
away,
I can't get a hold on you.
But then you should know that I'll always be scared to go there with you.
I thought you should know...

Feel it like I would,
Forget about the whole world.
It's only right if you can stay here with me.

I thought you should know that I'll always be scared of why you left the way you did.
I thought you should know...

Stay here like I would,
Forget about the whole world.
It's only right if you can stay
Here with me.

You could have chosen less and I accept that I'll never know your choice, your life or what it feels like.

Taking over...
Tell me of the choice, your life and what it feels like.
Running over me completely.

Now the knife's in me it's over.
The will has gone and I can't breathe.
There's only time to take one breath,
And I don't even want what's left.
You have chosen this is it.
It's over.

Hold on said I.
It's like seeing you but I feel no love inside.
Take a hold, don't you ever let go.
Stay here forever.
