"Melt Away"

Every time we've been together
You ask me how I've been
You never knew the words to reply

You see the truth is that I love you
There is more than meets the eye
That's the minute I envy inside

Refrain
Cause you and I are forever
Words are so strong
You turn my head around
Now my hands are tight

Every moment we've been given
You'll be precious like rain
Makes you feel alive
Makes us run and hide far away

Cause girl when I look at you
As you lay there by my side
Makes me even more assured today
That the man I was has gone away
You know I love you
Yes I do
But I'm melt away

I remember when I met you
I've seen it in your smile
This is going to be something big
Once you cross the point of romance
And lead your daily life
You have to suck it up and be strong

Refrain

Every moments we've been spending
She will be precious like rain
Makes us feel alive
Makes us run and hide far away

Cause girl when I look at you
As you lay there by my side
Makes me even more assured today
That the man I was has gone away
You know I love you
Yes I do
But I'm melt away

Every time we get close I miss care
Every time I hold you I wanna let you go
Every time I'm hopeless you take all my sorrow
Cause every time I knock at your door

Cause girl when I look at you
As you lay there by my side
Makes me even more assured today
That the man I was has gone away
You know I love you
Yes I do
But I'm melt away

Yeah you,make me melt away
Yeah you,make me melt away
Yes you do
