Don't know what to feel, my sister
My child, it walks, my sister
Why do I wonder her old dreams
Why do I mind the old sins?
A sight for sorrow, a mask to borrow
When you win, you're out forever

Oh my Lord, forgive me
Oh my Lord, forgive me
Oh my Lord, forgive me
Oh my Lord, forgive me

The loss, the pause, my brother
Should I know where to go, my brother?
Why should I cry for your life
Just boy with a knife in his eye.
You don't see all the loss when he weeps
I still reach for the sky with a tear in the eye
And there's a passage through the black,
Is that sunlight through the crack?
And if I pick up my speed,
I'll make a break for the trees
A sight for sorrow, a mask to borrow
When you win, you're out forever

Oh my Lord, forgive me
Oh my Lord, forgive me
Oh my Lord, forgive me
Oh my Lord, forgive me

Still reach for the sky with a tear in the eye
And there's a passage through the black
Is that sunlight through the crack?
And if I pick up my speed,
I'll make a break for the trees
A sight for sorrow, a mask to borrow
When you win, you're out forever

Oh my Lord, forgive me
Oh my Lord, forgive me
Oh my Lord, forgive me

Oh my Lord, forgive me
