Baby, I haven't been the one making excuses lately
You're runnin' around with another guy, you played me
You thought I was crazy, now you're trying to blame me
It's OK

I wanna go back to the place we came from Wanna go back together we can stay young
Wanna go back but we can't so we don't Cause this ain't a time machine
And this shit ain't cool with me

So tell me when did your heart turn to winter
Since when did the truth say goodbye
It's only July but it feels like December
I guess that's why snowflakes fall from your eyes

Oh baby, when did your heart turn to winter
Since when did the truth say goodbye
It's only July but it feels like December
I guess that's why snowflakes fall from your eyes
They keep falling from your eyes, eyes, eyes
They keep falling from your eyes, eyes, eyes
They keep falling from your eyes, eyes, eyes
They keep falling from your eyes, eyes, your eyes,
eyes

[Maribelle]

I know it's wrong (oh no)
Played with your heart, thought I'd never Let you go baby, thought I knew better
You're the best I ever had
I need to go back 'cause now I'm here all alone
Wanna go back to the place we came from
I take it all back, I played you over so wrong
Never again (never again)
I'll put an end (I'll put an end)
Please forgive me

But tell me when did your heart turn to winter
Since when did the truth say goodbye
It's only July but it feels like December
I guess that's why snowflakes fall from your eyes

Oh baby, when did your heart turn to winter
Since when did the truth say goodbye
It's only July but it feels like December
I guess that's why snowflakes fall from your eyes
They keep falling from your eyes, eyes, eyes
They keep falling from your eyes, eyes, eyes
They keep falling from your eyes, eyes, eyes
They keep falling from your eyes, eyes, your eyes,
eyes

Aye! I wish I could call you
Tell you to come back home, come back home oh baby
You threw away all we had
And now you're all alone, all alone
I wish we could go back to them places, we done came from
And I wish we could go back and we'd weather the storm
But I can't explain it, my heart can't contain it
I'm patiently waiting for someone to save me
Please save me

When did your heart turn to winter
Since when did the truth say goodbye
It's only July but it feels like December
I guess that's why snowflakes fall from your eyes

Oh baby, when did your heart turn to winter
Since when did the truth say goodbye
It's only July but it feels like December
I guess that's why snowflakes fall from your eyes
They keep falling from your eyes, eyes, eyes
They keep falling from your eyes, eyes, eyes
They keep falling from your eyes, eyes, eyes
They keep falling from your eyes, eyes, your eyes,
eyes
