Well I know that tomorrow is the last time
Oh god it's the last time I will see you
And I want you to know I adore you
And if I weren't me I would be you
Please leave the light on
We're starting to lose our crowd
I'd love you to be my lover
I wish me brave enough to scream it & shout it out loud

Will you miss me
Please just kiss me
Will you miss me like I'll miss you

Too soon it's over
Enjoy these last minutes
That are pulling my skin from my flesh
If I waited for you
Might you one day say it too
Either way I wish you the best
Hysterical laughter
Hides what we can't talk about
We hug in the morning & can't quite let go
Why isn't this allowed

Will you miss me
Please just kiss me
Will you miss me like I'll miss you

And in these last moments
The strength we find somewhere
We offer each other discreetly
I can't hear a thing & I'm shaking & crying
Like some bad late night tv movie
