Born and raised
Born and raised
Born and raised in Babylon

Can't adjust, Can't break away
Can't adjust, Can't break away

My soul was sold before I even touched down
I tracked down some pieces, the rest is nowhere to be found

I might waste my time, I might skate on thin ice
But all I can think of is to kill this compromise

Born and raised
Born and raised
Born and raised in Babylon

Can't adjust, Can't break away
